

General information

The organizers welcome all academia and industry researchers working in the field of catalysis to attend the 15th Nordic Symposium on Catalysis, June 10-12, 2012 in Mariehamn, Åland.

The conference will feature two parallel oral sessions and poster sessions covering topics Catalysis, Northern Europe and Baltic Sea and Catalysis for renewables. The conference language will be English.

Berzelius Prize and Lecture

Prize awarded by the Swedish Catalysis Society (sponsored by Perstorp Formox AB) will be announced during the conference.

Conference site

The conference site is the conference centre Alandica in Mariehamn, Åland. Åland is a pearl of the archipelago between Finland and Sweden. Alandica is situated in the heart of Mariehamn next to the conference hotel, Hotel Arkipelag.
